Relevant Coursework

- Previous/Current: Intermediate Micro 1 & 2 and Macro. Applied Econometrics, Advanced Econometrics (Grad), Advanced Micro (Grad), Machine Learning for Econ, Calculus 1,2,3, Differential EQ, Linear Algebra, Real Analysis 1 & 2, Complex analysis. Future: Advanced Macro (Grad), Probability Theory

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Brigham Young University Provo, UT
Research Assistant to Dr. Christian Vom Lehn August 2026 – Present

- Built panel datasets from BEA Input-Output and bridge files, harmonizing commodity and PCE codes across table vintages
- Measured trends in distribution margin, producing descriptive evidence to guide model development

Teaching Assistant to Dr. Brigham Frandsen (Advanced Econometrics) August 2026 – Present

- Tutoring 15+ students in graduate-level econometric coursework in both individual office hours, and classroom settings
- Curriculum based on Greene, Econometric analysis (8th Ed.) covering GMM, nonparametric and M-estimation

Research Assistant to Dr. Emily Leslie December 2024 – August 2025

- Measured causal effects of federal housing investment using regression discontinuity and diff-in-diff across 20-year panel
- Proposed/evaluated multiple quasi-experimental designs, leading discussions with faculty advisor to select identification strategy
- Cleaned 50+ gov. datasets (HUD, Census, ACS) with geographic linking and quality controls in both STATA and PYTHON
- Produced executive/publication ready reports with summary stats, visualizations and regression tables in LaTeX and PowerPoint

Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas Dallas, TX
Research Intern, International Group June 2026 – August 2026

- Extended DGE model of structural change, introducing a net-foreign-asset adjustment cost friction and nonhomothetic demand
- Constructed various panel datasets in STATA that harmonizes multiple GGDC World Input-Output table vintages
- Recovered structural parameters (productivities, trade costs, demand shifters) by inverting the models equilibrium conditions
- Wrote quantitative scripts in MATLAB to numerically solve model equilibrium and simulate trade-cost counterfactuals
- Produced publication-ready working paper with mathematical proofs, visualizations, and parameter tables in LaTeX

Sorenson Impact Institute (Venture Capital fund with ~$200M AUM) Salt Lake City, UT
Social Impact Investment Analyst August 2025 – April 2026

- Sourced 20+ investment leads to date for 2 venture funds, performing initial diligence and investment screens for team review
- Measured social impact of investments against thesis verticals (health equity, financial inclusion, econ dev. and climate tech)
- Presented detailed investment rationale to IC of ~15 advisors and investors, resulting in granted approval of $250K investment
- Outreached with CEOs, founding teams, and industry experts to discuss potential fund fit and conduct further due diligence
